

Ann Arbor at a Glance

Ann Arbor is the largest city near the York Technical Center campus. The York facility is located in York Township, about 10 miles south of Ann Arbor. Ann Arbor is eight miles west of Ypsilanti, 42 miles west of Detroit and 32 miles from the Detroit Metropolitan Wayne County Airport. This information focuses on Ann Arbor, but also provides information about the surrounding towns and rural areas.

Liberty Street in downtown Ann Arbor

Ann Arbor statistics*

- Population: 116,121 including the student population of the University of Michigan
- Size: 28.2 square miles
- Median Age: 28 years
- Education: 64 percent have four years of college or more
- Warm season is May 28 – September 19 with average daily high temperature above 72°F
- Cold season is November 30 – March 4 with average daily high temperature below 40°F

*From visitannarbor.org, weatherspark.org and the U.S. Census

Burns Park Neighborhood,
Ann Arbor

Ann Arbor and surrounding area
(googlemaps.com)

Aerial view of
Ann Arbor

Note: All links can be accessed from OneToyotaHub.com once the portal is live.

Ann Arbor at a Glance

Ann Arbor overview

Located in southeast Michigan, Ann Arbor is a college town with world-class educational opportunities, a high quality of life and strong sense of community. The town is known for its rich cultural amenities, diverse recreational opportunities, championship sports teams and vibrant restaurant scene. Home to the University of Michigan and several smaller regional and community colleges, Ann Arbor was rated #14 of the top 100 best places to live by Livability.com (2014). For more information on Ann Arbor and the surrounding area, check out these links:

- Ann Arbor USA
- Visit Ann Arbor
- Ann Arbor News: top 10 lists
- Ann Arbor Board of Realtors
- 10 Things to see and do in Ann Arbor
- Chelsea Area Chamber of Commerce
- Things to do in Chelsea
- City of Saline
- Saline Area Chamber of Commerce
- City of Ypsilanti
- Ypsilanti Chamber of Commerce

Education

The public school system in Ann Arbor is generally viewed as providing high-quality education for its children. There are also more than 20 private schools in the area. York Township is served by two school districts: Milan Area Schools and Saline Area Schools.

- Ann Arbor Public Schools:
 - K-12 AAPS enrollment: 16,507 as of September 2012
 - 81% of AAPS teaching staff holds master's degree or above
 - Per pupil AAPS allocation: $9,020 in 2013
 - Average SAT V/M scores (2012): 608/642 compared to 496/514 nationally
- Ann Arbor is home to more than 20 private schools and a number of charter schools
- Great Schools website \(Ann Arbor\)
- Milan Area Schools
- Saline Area Schools

York Toyota
Technical Center

University of Michigan

Rooftop view of the University of Michigan

Bandemer Park
in Ann Arbor